THIRTY-NINTH YEAR No. 1.

COAST BUSINESS WOMEN FAVOR BAY ST. LOUIS WITH HOLIDAY MEETING

"The Answer" Scene Monday Night of Banquet—Miss Patenotte, President Gulfport Club Delivers Address.

"The Answer" beautiful and popular tea room in Union street was the scene of the regular monthly meeting and annual holiday banquet of the Business Women's League—two separate organizations—one at Gulfport and the other at Pass Christian, Monday night, with Miss Miriam Engman of Bay St. Louis as the clever toast mistress.

Mrs. John Stewart, proprietress of "The Answer" and a member of the Pass Christian Club, was hostess of the evening, while Mrs. Loraine Adam, president of Pass Christian, and Miss Elena Patenotte, president of Gulfport club, sat at the head of the long festive board.

At a separate table, equally beautifully decorated, with Christmas tree as centerpiece, and potted poinsettias as individual favors, sat a number of invited friends as chaperones, a courtesy to friends of the two coast organizations as whole. The guests included, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau.

The program was well planned and equally carried out. There were many clever previously-arranged witticisms, talks and stunts. The gentlemen at the chaperone table were also called upon for addresses.

A feature aside from the yuletide decorations, tasty and telling emanations from Mrs. Stewart, and unusually fine turkey menu and usual fixings were served, a sumptuous repast indeed.

Miss Elena Patenotte was the main speaker of the evening and delivered the address, interesting and constructive, which follows:

Madam Chairman, Madam President, Club Members: This particular season of the year is one of great happiness and joy, and not a time for heavy speech-making, but it is also a good time for us to take stock of our lives and to speak of the joys and blessings which have come to us during the year.

As I begin to take stock of mine, one of my greatest joys this past year has been the fact that I am a member of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women Clubs—a great national goal—a "Better Business Woman for a Better Business World."

I am going to ask you to consider with me for just a moment the privileges which are ours as a result of this membership.

"Speaking to you as Clubs, you realize that by virtue of the fact that you are organized, you have a potential influence which you as individuals could not have. To you as a club is given the opportunity to work toward civic development and civic betterment, and toward the carrying forward of those ideals which your club fosters. To you as a group is afforded the privilege of doing real service; you are a voice in the affairs of your city. These are the things you are organized, because you are a group or groups of active women, and it is your privilege, your duty to use them to the best of your ability."

"To you as individuals, your club offers friendships, fellowships, cooperation, and sympathetic understanding of your fellow-workers. It offers you a broader vision because it brings to you the ideas of others. It gives to you a keener sense of service, an aspiration to strive to higher goals, and it offers to you a helping hand to attain these goals."

"But more than these, your club fosters ideals and principles which, if followed conscientiously, will make you better women and better citizens. The National Federation expects of us a pledge—a pledge that when we become members of this great organization we will make our business standards high; that we will do our work in every way to the very best of our ability; that we will put into our business dealings a note of sympathy. It expects from us the pledge of loyalty to each other, and to every business woman; the pledge to improve ourselves in every way; to increase our efficiency; and to enlarge our vision."

"And, as we in our own groups are working to carry out these personal pledges, as we are helping in the affairs of our local club, we must always remember that we are working alone, but that we are a unit in a great nation-wide organization made up of our own."

"We must always bear in mind the thought that we are doing our part—small though it may seem to us—to make perfect the continuity of this great program of our National organization. Our National Federation is a wonderful organization, one that has extended its arms over our entire country, across the seas into foreign lands, and a great sisterhood of thousands of active and loyal members. It is a united whole, because it is cemented together by ties of deepest friendship, and because it holds out to all its members the same message of service and of fellowship. It is the only organization which broadens our vision and gives us a sense of purpose."

"We must remember that we are not alone in our efforts. We are part of a great whole, and we must strive to make our part as perfect as possible, for the good of the whole."

"I am sure that each of us here tonight will go away with a renewed sense of purpose and a determination to do our best for our club, for our city, and for our country."

"Thank you very much for your kind attention and for the privilege of speaking to you this evening."

WESTON LUMBER CO. RECEIVE LARGE TAX REFUND FROM GOV'T.

Total of $23,384 Is Refunded to Hancock County Co. In Erroneously Collected Taxes

An Associated Press dispatch under date of December 7, from Washington states:

The H. Weston Lumber Company of Logtown, Miss., today was listed in a treasury department report to Congress on tax refunds for the fiscal year of 1929, as sharing in the largest single refund in the state. Texas erroneously collected from this firm and returned totalled $23,374.

The major-Sowers Saw Mill company of Hattiesburg, Miss., was second on the refund list with a total of $25,055. Other refunds of more than $500 were listed as follows:

The Bank of Shelby, Shelby, $657; Bank of Yazoo City, $993; Corinth Bank & Trust Co., Corinth, $1,287; Dantzler Lumber Co., Moss Point, $1,447; H. Fine, Laurel, $929; N. Fine, Laurel, $933; Henry K. Fisher, Greenville, $4,983; Grenada Oil Mills, Grenada, $2,014; Fred Gritman, Drow, $845.

Gulfport Cressoting Co., Gulfport, $5,063 and $2,059; Mrs. S. F. Hopkins, Rosedale, $508; Howard-Aycock Furniture Co., Laurel, $761; Gonzales Johnson, Roundaway, $1,366; S. E. Lackey, Forest, $845 and $800.

K. Threefoot estate; Louis Threefoot executor, Meridian, $4,993; White Lumber Company, Columbia, $5,545; Helen White Lumber Co., Clyde, $11,921; Williams Yellow Pine Co., Portville, $2,992.

CHRISTMAS CAROL SINGING SUCCESS

The Christmas carol singing of the intermediate class of the First Methodist church proved most successful. Fifteen children led by their teacher, Miss Mary Perkins, composed the party going from home to home Christmas Eve, making the trip by motor.

The lighted candle in the window was the signal for the party to stop and sing and this year the number of invitations exceeded those of other years. When the party reached the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Drake, Mrs. Drake invited them inside and served delicious refreshments of hot tea, cake and candies.

Friends Remember Telephone Operators

Many friends remembered the nine operators of the local telephone company's office at Christmas with delightful gifts, messages, letters of appreciation, cards, all expressing appreciation for service rendered. The girls were especially happy over this thoughtfulness of their friends.

Among those who sent gifts to each of the girls were: Hancock County Bank, Beach Store, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Seller and daughter, Mrs. John W. Bryan, A. J. McLeod, Bro. Peter of St. Stanislaus College, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Allen. A number of other friends remembered individual girls with individual gifts.

A lovely New Year's remembrance was sent by Mrs. Ed. Carriere of Waveland in the form of a large hamper filled to overflowing with all kinds of fruits.

URGES ENLISTMENT IN UNITED STATES ARMY

Sergeant Arthur V. Berry of the U. S. Army, recruiting officer with offices at the city hall, Gulfport, announces that anyone from Biloxi to Bay St. Louis interested in joining any part of the Army may obtain full information from him and that he is at his office throughout the day.

He announced this week that there are vacancies now in the air service, the chemical warfare service in England, for musicians in the 5th infantry band at Fort Monitrie, S. C. and the 1st cavalry band stationed at Camp Maria, Tex., and that three vacancies exist in the signal service for qualified operators to be stationed at Atlanta, and likewise that the usual lines of army service in infantry, artillery, engineers, etc., are open for original enlistment.

WILL PURCHASE TRUCK

The board of supervisors of Hancock county will convene at the regular January meeting Monday morning.

St. Margaret's Daughters

The regular monthly meeting of St. Margaret's Daughters will be held Wednesday, January 8, 3 o'clock, at the convent and all members are asked to attend.

Grandmother Dies.

C. C. Jinks, manager of Edwards Bros. Motor Company, was called to his former home at Union Springs, Ala., by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Jinks who passed away Christmas Day and was buried December 26.

CHANCERY CLERK VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sherard and three children of Vicksburg were guests here from Thursday to Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Favre. Mr. Sherard is chancery clerk at Vicksburg and he and Mr. Favre, chancery clerk of Hancock county, are close personal friends.

SON HERE FROM DALLAS

NEW CARS ARE NOW SHOWN

New Models With Many Body Changes Are On Display at Edwards Bros. Motor Company

The first of the new model A Ford cars with their many body changes were placed on display at the Edwards Bros. Motor Company on Main street Wednesday when everyone was invited to view them and where they will be on display continuously in the future, Manager C. G. Jinks said.

"The most notable change in body designs of the Model A Ford to be shown here Wednesday have been made in the Tudor Sedan, the Coupes and the open cars," Mr. Jinks said.

"The Tudor Sedan has been the most popular of the five passenger models," he continued. "The new body design will bring to it additional beauty and the new choice of colors is certain to make it more popular with women drivers."

"More room will be provided for occupants of the rear compartment. Access will be easier around the folding seats in front. In exterior appearance the car will be much improved."

"It still will retain the crown roof effect with rounded corners on the rear quarter, the beauty of which will be accentuated by an entirely new design body belt and moulding treatment."

Coupe Changed

"The coupe, too, will be entirely new in design. It will have a lower roof line. French roof quarters will emphasize the low effect and the long lines of the new moulding treatment. A panel effect carried out by the moulding on the rear deck will add much to the smart appearance of the car."

"Lowering of the roof line will not bring any loss of head room inside, and driving will be as comfortable as before. The new body lines of the coupe will be carried out above the belt line, as heretofore. The roof line will be lower, also, and in this car, too, driving comfort will be improved by the installation of an adjustable seat. The same feature will be extended to the Convertible Cabriolet."

Open Cars are New

"The two open cars, the phaeton and roadster, are entirely new in design, with long, lower lines, and more beautiful appearance."

Mr. Jinks emphasized the fact that no new model has been brought out. Mechanically the car is essentially the same. While new features such as wheels and a new composition steering wheel, black and polished to a high lustre, with finger knobs underneath the rim, have been added, all the standard features, which have made the Model A a car of such remarkable dependability have been retained, he said.

These include sturdy steel construction, four Houdaille hydraulic double-acting shock absorbers, Triplex steering-proof glass windshield, quick acceleration, ease of control, 55 to 65 miles an hour and smoothness, balance and security at all speeds.

"Requests for demonstration rides in the new Model A Fords have been swamping our telephone since the new bodies were shown to the public of Bay St. Louis for the first time Wednesday," Mr. Jinks said.

"We are glad to accommodate any resident of this section who may wish the experience of a trial ride in the new bodies that now adorn the Model A Ford chassis."

QUICK CHRISTMAS WITH NO ARRESTS

The holidays have seen a very quiet period in Bay St. Louis and in neither city or county has there been any arrests during the Christmas season. Several who were slightly over excited, as it were, with Christmas spirit, were confined in the city jail for several hours and were then released. Officers state that the conduct of everyone was highly complimentary to the type of people who reside here.

Greeting Our Northern Visitors—Extending Southern Hospitality in Old-Fashioned Way

WITHIN the next few weeks the Mississippi Coast will welcome hundreds of visitors from northern, eastern and western States who come here for the winter tourist season, some planning to stay a few days and others stopping here for longer intervals. Much of the attitude of these displaced tourists toward the Coast will be determined by the type of reception accorded them by Coast residents. If they find a welcome here their pleasure in their stay will be correspondingly increased, and should they not be welcomed their displeasure in the lack of congeniality accorded them may react unfavorably in their opinion of the Coast.

The South is famous for its hospitality but we are prone to extend that hospitality to our friends—no matter how generous and welcome the visitor to the Coast, and in welcoming him we are apt to find that we like him and are happy in having him present. The saying, "The better we know people the better we like them," may well apply to the tourist who comes to the Coast.

Oh, we like it fine down here. The weather is ideal; the scenery is lovely. We enjoy the section, but we do not learn to know the people. There is no place where we may meet the people socially. We came to know the northern tourists who are staying at the same hotel or rooming house that we do, but we do not know the residents of the Coast section."

An ideal way to show the Coast visitor that we welcome him, are glad to have him and family here, and wish they would remain for an extended visit, is to tell him so in uncertain terms and then show him that we mean this by sharing our famous hospitality with him.

The tourist city which plays to northern or other guests, should have a recreational center where certain entertainments are planned for the enjoyment of the visitor. There should be groups of the townspeople who would be willing to give of their time to entertain the visitors. Some system should be arranged which would bring the townspeople and the tourists together, and thus create a stepping stone, as it were, to friendly intercourse. There are any one of a half hundred men and women of the Bay who would most graciously serve as official host and hostess and assist in giving to Bay St. Louis the reputation of a town that extends a friendly, welcoming hand to visitors.

The Arab extends his friendship when he invites a stranger to break bread with him. May we not emulate him and make of our desert of unfriendliness and strangeness an oasis of welcome to the visitor, by meeting him with them in a friendly, friendly, welcoming hand, as it were, to friendly intercourse. ### PANTHERS LOSE GAME TO TULANE

Local Players Give Good Account of Themselves In Highly Interesting Tilt

(By Wm. D. Hays, Jr.)

The Tulane University basketball team defeated the Panthers, 39 to 12, at Stanislaus gymnasium Saturday night. The local team was no match for the heavier and more experienced visitors, but succeeded in making them tight, and in spite of the one-sided score, the game was very interesting.

The Greensies used their second team to start the game, but were forced to send in their regulars in the first few minutes of play, when the Panthers took the lead. The two teams battled almost equally in the first half, with Tulane leading, 15 to 9, at the end of the half. In the second half Tulane came back much stronger, and completely outclassed the local aggregation, scoring sixteen points to the Panthers' none during their stay in the game. The Tulane substitutes returned in the last five minutes of play, and the Panthers scored for the first time during the second half.

The Green Wave showed a wonderful defense in keeping the score low, and executed a smooth passing attack. The playing of "Red" Dawson at guard and Walsh at forward was outstanding for Tulane. The Panthers displayed a good, well-balanced team that fought hard throughout the game. Breath and Erwin both put up a good game at forward for the Panthers, while Blaize at guard did well, and von Ehren at center led his team in scoring.

Twenty three members of the Busy Little Workers Circle of Junior King's Daughters enjoyed their Christmas party heartily when their leader, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, entertained for them at her North Beach Boulevard home Friday of last week. Games of many kinds were played, songs were sung and each performed a stunt to the delight of the onlookers. The most interesting feature of the evening was the Christmas tree and its gifts. Mrs. Leonard thoughtfully having arranged a string of beads, handkerchief and package of candy for each child.

INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT SATURDAY

Ensign Howell J. Dyson of U. S. air station at Pensacola and mother, Mrs. Chas. E. Dyson of Alexandria were injured in an auto accident Saturday afternoon when the car in which they were riding with another son of Mrs. Dyson, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Dyson, collided with a passing auto at Nicholson avenue. They were treated at the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital at Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Dyson having suffered a great number of cuts about the face and head including a split tongue and Ensign Dyson having cuts on the head, these having been sustained as they were thrown through the windshield as their car went into a ditch to the side of the road, striking a culvert.

The party were en route to Pensacola returning the young men to the field. After the wounded were treated the men went to Pensacola and the ladies returned to Alexandria.

SUPERVISORS WILL CONVENE MONDAY

The board of supervisors of Hancock county will convene at the regular January meeting Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Blaise had as their guest during Christmas their son, Louis J. Blaise whose headquarters are Dallas, Texas. He is assistant chief engineer with the Texas Power and Light Company. He left Sunday to return to his work.

WOMEN ARE NEEDED TO AID NURSE

Women, whether members of the King's Daughters Circle or not, are needed to assist at the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital for several hours a day to give the nurse, Mrs. McCorkle, a rest period and relief from constant duty to which she has been so graciously responding since coming here to take charge of the hospital. If women will give an hour or two in the morning and others will give some time in the afternoon and evenings to assisting at the hospital, this will permit Mrs. McCorkle to secure much needed rest and an appeal is made to kindly-disposed women to give this service. Mrs. A. F. Fournier, president of the circle, makes this appeal, believing, she states, that as soon as the women of the city find that they are wanted that they will respond to this service as they have always responded to every appeal made to them for relieving suffering.

Mrs. Marjorie Nye Acker of Waveland has been named chairman to arrange for the different ladies to assist at the hospital at certain hours and anyone who will give of her time for this work is asked to phone Mrs. Acker and thus a schedule of service can be made, in which the nurse may receive the needed assistance.

At present the hospital is not in a position to obtain more than one nurse and 24 hours a day constant service is too much to expect of any nurse and Mrs. McCorkle must have some relief, Mrs. Fournier pointed out.

Appreciation for the kindness rendered the hospital in every respect during the past year is expressed by Mrs. Fournier, who in the name of the circle and hospital, extends wishes for a happy New Year to all.

SPLENDID FILM TO SHOW TWO NIGHTS AT LOCAL THEATER

Joan Crawford in "Untamed" Appears in First All-Talkie Production

Joan Crawford is one of those very rare actresses who can produce their own tears without the aid of the glycerine of "Untamed," all-talking picture which will show Sunday and Monday at the A. & G. Theater. Miss Crawford turned her back to the company a moment, and when she faced about, her cheeks were streaming with tears. The ability to produce tears naturally is one of the rarest things in the field of the theater.

"Untamed," an all-talking picture coming to Bay St. Louis, is a new and interesting story of "Young America" in the process of adjusting itself. When Joan Crawford falls in love at first sight with Robert Montgomery on a boat en route up from the jungles of Central America, she sees no good reason why there should be such a bother about their marriage. But there is, and many dramatic things happen before Director Jack Canway brings this picture to a striking close. Others in the cast include Ernest Torrence, Don Terry, Gwen Lee, Holmes Herbert, John Miljan, Eddie Nugent and Grace Cunard.

EASTERN STAR WILL INSTALL JANUARY 9

The Bay St. Louis chapter of Eastern Star will hold its regular installation of officers elected in December at the meeting to be held Thursday, January 9, 7:30 o'clock, at the Masonic Temple. At this time the appointive officers who were announced recently by the newly elected worthy matron, Mrs. O. E. Heideman, will be installed with the elected officers.

MASONS TO INSTALL OFFICERS JANUARY 14

The Bay St. Louis lodge of Free and Accepted Masons will install officers elected in December at the regular meeting, January 14, 7:30 o'clock, at the Masonic Temple, at a meeting open to members and visiting Masons.

The newly elected worshipful master, S. L. Engman, announces the two following appointive officers who will be installed with the elected officers, namely, Ben Hille, senior deacon, and J. W. Watts Jr., junior deacon.

ALTAR SOCIETY

The regular monthly meeting of the Altar Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church will take place Monday, January 6, 7 o'clock, at the convent and members are asked to be present.

DO NOT WISH QUESTION SOLVED

President Hoover's law enforcement commission after months of investigation has so failed to make any sort of a report, and it is coming in for more or less criticism by both the "wets" and the "drys." United States Senator Wagner, of New York, who is rated one of the "wettest of the wets," is opposed to hurrying the commission into making even a preliminary report, saying that it was "imperative that the commission be given both the time and the latitude" to make its report on the basis of "complete information and mature deliberation," and adding that the demands of the dry leaders "confirms a suspicion that they do not really desire to see the prohibition question solved, as they are to continue to use it as a political shibboleth and political weapon." It is the Echo's belief that the New York senator has expressed the opinion of a vast majority of the people of our country.

AN INHUMAN WRETCH

The "meanest" man is the inhuman wretch at St. Louis who sewed up the mouth of a dog and then turned it loose to starve. More than $2,000 has been offered as a reward for the capture of the man who did it. Let us hope he may soon be found, and yet we know that there is no penalty provided by law which would fit his case.

An assassin made an unsuccessful attempt to kill the president of Brazil the other day, but paid for the attempt with his own life as he was shot down by the presidential bodyguard.

Senator Frederick M. Sockett of Kentucky has been selected by President Hoover to represent the United States as ambassador to Germany. He succeeds Ambassador Scherrman, resigned.

John D. Rockefeller made the relief and annuity board of the Southern Baptist convention a Christmas gift of $500,000. Old John's purse never fails to open when his brother Baptists need the "long green."

The value of the principal farm crops of Mississippi for 1929 is estimated at approximately $285,000,000, as against $288,000,000 for 1928, an increase of about 18 1-2 per cent, according to the December crop summary.

Dr. Henry Fairchild Osborn, head of the American Museum of Natural History, tells scientists that man did not descend from the monkey. Now a waiting word can go along about its business and cease to worry!

Who is it that thinks our's is not a wealthy country, when there has been an increase of 692 per cent in the national income since 1900, in which year the national income amounted to $13,000,000,000. Last year it was estimated at over $90,000,000,000.

There is a scramble already started over who is to succeed the late Henry D. Clayton, judge of the federal district of Central Alabama, who died last week. It is a life-time job, with a good salary and one coveted by most members of the legal profession—whether they possess the necessary qualifications or not.

Bolivar county leads all the counties in the State in cotton ginned prior to December 1st by reporting 144,830 bales. Sunflower county was a close second with 138,831 bales. At the present prices the staple commands, the cotton planters of those counties should have "money to burn."

The Jackson Clarion-Ledger never loses an opportunity to lambast Governor Bilbo, and nothing that he does or suggests finds favor in the eyes of our capital contemporary. It is hardly probable that the chief executive would have ever attained his present prominence in politics had it not been for the abuse heaped upon him by his enemies.

The killing of three rum runners and the capture of their $600,000 cargo of liquor by a coast guard patrol boat off the Long Island coast on Sunday, brought a statement from the commandant of the coast guard that "it means business" and any rum running craft failing to heed the command to halt "runs a serious risk of getting hurt."

On the 1st of January, 1923, the bonded indebtedness of the State of Mississippi was $13,456,500, and on the 1st of January, 1930, the same will have been increased to $28,698,750. Think of it, Mr. Taxpayer—a jump of $15,242,250 in seven years. Is it any wonder that the people are groaning under the burden of high taxes, and are asking for relief?

The trials of Rush H. Knox and Cecil Inman, separately charged with embezzlement, have been continued until the 14th day of the Hinds county circuit court. They were to be arranged on the 23rd when Attorney General Mitchell appeared in court and announced that he had just been requested by Governor Bilbo to take charge of the prosecution, and as he wished to make a study of the charges against the accused, he asked that the cases be continued until the 14th. Judge Potter readily granted the request.

FOR THE GOOD OF MISSISSIPPI

If there is any one man in the State who knows what is going on in Mississippi that man is the Hon. Edgar S. Wilson of Jackson. His ear is ever to the ground, and his observations as printed in his "Mirrors of Mississippi" can be accepted as absolutely true and correct.

Under date of December 27th he observes: "Frequently the unexpected happens. The talk of strife and dissension between the executive and legislative branches of the government when the legislature convenes at high noon on January 1, 1930, in regular session, may disappoint the authors of such predictions by a concord of harmony which will make for the best interest of state and people. The problems which confront the tax payers are the most severe that ever confronted the executive and legislative branches of the government."

"It is reported that there is a sentiment throughout the state among not only the tax-paying men and women but among high minded members of both the senate and house who are also taxpayers, that there should be no more strife and bickering but that there should be a fusion under the solar heat of patriotism in all branches of the government for the glory, welfare and prosperity of every man, woman and child in the commonwealth."

"The expression is common that we are all white men and women, we are all Democrats and we are all Mississippians profoundly imbued with the devout hope that all problems which confront the executive and legislative branches of the government will be solved in a patriotic and statesmanlike manner and that when the legislature shall have adjourned, there will go up a chorus from all the people, regardless of faction of section, 'Well done thou good and faithful servants.'"

"The newspapers of Mississippi since the days of reconstruction, when the carpetbaggers, scoundrels and negroes were driven from place and power, with a few ignoble exceptions, championed the cause of honest government and state progress."

THE KLAN OVER IN ALABAMA

It is not a matter of surprise that the Ku Klux Klan in Alabama is aroused over the action of the State Democratic executive committee in passing a resolution barring candidates who openly opposed the election of the National Democratic nominees in 1928.

What is purported to be an official proclamation to Klansmen urging them to resist discipline for bolting the party in the last campaign was published in the Birmingham papers on the 26th, and the grand dragon of the organization, while asserting that the Klan is "not a political or religious organization," his declaration will not be accepted as true, inasmuch as he is the head of the secret and discredited organization and therefore responsible for issuance of the proclamation, which declares:

"The action of the state 'autocratic executive committee is manifest by so unfair, so undemocratic, so un-American, so obedient, to Tammany Hall and to the Roman Catholic church, that it is being hotly condemned by every Democratic senator and congressman in Washington, and by every intelligent and fair-minded citizen of the nation."

"Klansmen, don't hesitate to express yourself about this matter in every place and on every occasion. Let your courage impart itself to others that they too may share your militant resistance to this new species of political intolerance. Stand by your guns; be men, not cowards. Your grand dragon is determined to stand by you Klansmen and to fight."

If that is not positive proof that the Klan is a political or religious organization, then we are unable to understand the English language.

The untimely and stalwart Democracy of Alabama will not be bluffed by the opposition of the Ku Klux Klan, and J. Tom Heflin and all other Hoovercrats who have an idea that they can or will ride into office through votes of the Kluckers are going to be sadly disappointed.

LEROY PERCY

In the death of Hon. Leroy Percy the State of Mississippi suffers an irreparable loss. His whole life was devoted to the uplift and material betterment of his native State, and his devotion and patriotic service in Mississippi's behalf will never be forgotten.

Unlike many men who have been blessed with an abundance of this world's goods, Mr. Percy's heart beat with sympathy for his less fortunate fellowmen, and his interest and deepest concern at all times was to aid and assist them in every way possible. In the United States senate he made a brilliant record and his retirement to private life at the end of his term in that august assembly was a source of regret to all Mississippians who were proud of the honor reflected on the State by his presence there.

Mr. Percy passed away at a hospital in Memphis shortly after undergoing a surgical operation. He was seventy-two years of age, and it was just two months ago that he lost his devoted wife, and it is thought grief over his loss had much to do with his failure to rally.

MONUMENT TO LINDBERGH?

We noted in the daily press a few days ago that a movement has been started to erect a statue of Lindbergh in St. Louis, but like that most popular paragrapher Arthur Brisbane we think—

"It is unnecessary, it is too soon, and who in the country could make it good enough, except MacMonnies, and he, for the time, has given up sculpture."

"Lindbergh possesses now a monument sufficient—a picture in every American mind of youth sitting in a small box, with wings, leaving New York alone, crossing the ocean from New York to Paris."

"When you have that kind of monument, you don't need anything of marble or bronze."

In the death of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Sessums, the Episcopal diocese of Louisiana lost a priest who was beloved and honored by all creeds and classes in that State. He was a great churchman and his labors in the Master's vineyard were remarkably gratifying and successful.

PERVERTED PUBLIC

If a newspaper printed just what it wanted to print, and nothing else, it wouldn't live six days if it had to exist off its earnings.

In a certain county newspaper, wherein the usual crossroads correspondence is found, a contributor varied his "Mr. and Mrs. So-and-So" by visiting "Mr. and Mrs. Somebody," by a suggestive quotation from the Scottish critic and historian Thomas Carlyle, just as applicable to the population of cities as of rural districts. Carlyle said:

"There is no more infallible proof of a shallow mind than its curiosity as to the private life of others—their weaknesses, their foibles, their mistakes. It can be nothing else but pitiful, frantic effort of mind to escape complete emptiness. With this world so crowded with matters of importance, of beauty of worth, it is self-evident that the only possible reason any mind debases itself with its neighbors' affairs is its incapacity to hold anything else."

It is the craving for the sensational the hankering for scandal, the readiness with which most people read gossip and detraction of prominent men and women, and the avidity with which they swallow up the doings of the criminals and crooks, that proves the presence of the shallow mind in the great majority.

A Chicago paper is authority for the statement that in Boston, fondly regarded as the seat of culture and intellect, especially by Bostonians, "a newspaper that flaunts every scandal before its readers, and every trivial and sensational item in the day's doings, has a circulation in excess of 300,000, while another newspaper most carefully edited and restricted to the publication of 'matters of importance, of beauty, and of worth,' prints less than 40,000 copies."

If anywhere we might expect a demand for the select, the high-toned the pure and inspiring, it would be in Boston, and New England, but the home of Hawthorne's Puritan clergyman, the "Rev. Arthur Dimmesdale," and of Barrie's "Little Minister," alike are devoted to curiosity, scandal and gossip.

TOO MANY BONDS AND VETOES.

The Southern Reporter, published up in Panola County, expresses the opinion and sentiment of 99 per cent of the taxpayers of Mississippi in the following editorial:

The Legislature will soon be in regular session again, and it is hoped that for a while at least factionalism can be laid aside, and that the members can be so cemented in their time for accomplishment of the "greater good to the greatest number" of the people. True the obstacle that has so far prevented the enactment of the necessary legislation has not been the failure of the Legislature to pass the bills, but the too free use of the veto power by the Governor. Had the latter been able to appreciate the fact that others are as capable as he, and that they were no more dabbling in muddy politics than he, but were engaged in an honest and earnest effort, to accomplish the work for which they felt they had been elected by the people, then it might have been acclaimed today, that "all is lovely and the goose hangs high."

Sometimes we have been very much tempted to write our sentiments in language that would be expressive, even if not altogether choice or refined, but we have deferred doing so, hoping that there would be a change of sentiment that would give us the much desired relief. There is just one thing that we wish at this time to advise, and that is that the State does not need any more bonded indebtedness to add unnecessarily to the tax burden that is now weighing so heavily upon the people, and we believe that the Legislature will act wisely—very wisely—to kill any measure that calls for the issuance of bonds, unless it is shown to be absolutely needed for the good of the people. We remember away back in the days of some of our great men then in power, hearing one of them say that he did not believe any law-making body had the moral right, even if they had the legal right, to heap such tax burdens as the issuing of bonds would be upon future generations. Sometimes, the issuing of bonds may become a necessity, and when such is the case, there will be little if any objection raised to it. But the issuing of bonds for experimental purposes, or "for show," is asking too much of the people. So, as we have said, we hope the Legislature will kill every such proposition that may be brought before it.

Autoists Sue Each Other

With the drivers of two automobiles that figured in a collision on the beach boulevard in Pass Christian on October 10, each saying the blame for the occurrence on the other, three damage suits were filed this week in the circuit court of Harrison county as an outgrowth of the crash.

George Planas and his wife, Gertrude Planas of Pass Christian, occupants of one of the automobiles, have filed suits for personal injury damages in the sum of $10,000 each against Herman Krug of New York, owner and operator of the other car, while Krug has likewise filed a personal property damage claim against Planas in the sum of $5,000.

Planas and his wife charge Krug with negligence and defend themselves by claiming to have suffered in the wreck including gashes on the head, contusions of the brain and leg and knee injuries in addition to a $600 damage to their automobile.

Krug, on the other hand, attributes responsibility for the collision to Planas and says Planas crashed from a side street onto the beach boulevard. He suffered minor personal injuries, in the way of a cut lip and bruises about the leg and knee. Damage to his automobile is given as $2,000.—Pass Christian Tarpon.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS CHRONICLED IN THE SEA COAST ECHO

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. Palatsek and son, Mr. Max Palatsek, came out from New Orleans last week upon learning of the death of their friend Dr. L. A. de Montuzin.

Jefferson Smelker is up and out again after quite a siege of illness from a spinal affection due to cold contracted while playing his daily vacation outdoors.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans are entertaining for the winter months, Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. Geo. S. Boyd and little daughter Marguerite, of Dresden, Tenn.

Rev. H. B. Cottrell and family are domiciled temporarily at the residence of Congressman E. J. Bowers, pending some alterations or additions to the parsonage by the ladies of the Home Mission Society.

Attorney Carl Marshall, well-known young society beau, as well as one of the successful practitioners of this city, attended the cotillion of the Stafford Club, in New Orleans, on Tuesday night, the occasion being the formal opening of the new carnival organization's club rooms.

In another column of this week's issue of The Echo will be found the professional card of Dr. M. A. Bush who, locating here some few months since, is no stranger to our people. His best recommendation is that although here a comparative short time, he has already built up quite a practice. His card is an evidence of his intention to permanently locate here.

Mrs. Sylvester Ladner and children have returned to their home at Dunbar, La., after a visit of several weeks to Mrs. Ladner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gex, at the beach front villa.

Hon. Joseph O. Mauffray spent part of the Christmas holidays with his father at the old family home in the Jordan river district of the country. After the holiday business rush, a few days' rest at the old homestead in the quietude of the country, with the soothing of the pines as a soothing lullaby to the nerves, proved exceedingly beneficial to our young friend.

The Echo exceedingly regrets to learn of the serious illness of Brother D'Albert, one of the oldest and best known members of the brotherhood of St. Stanislaus College. The venerable Brother labored heroically during the fury of the September storm in an effort to stay the ravages of the devastating elements on that memorable date, and has ever since been in failing health.

Miss Ruth Cazanuve left during the holidays for Indianapolis, Ind., where she will visit for an indefinite period, guest of her sister, Mrs. Bernard O'Connor.

Born at the time when all the civilized world was celebrating the birth of the Christ child, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benedetto were blessed with a fine boy at their home in Second street. Mr. Benedetto has been receiving the congratulations of his friends on the occasion of so happy an event.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Miss Lillian Ames has returned from a short stay in New Orleans.

Mrs. Pem Davis entertained at cards at her home on Carroll avenue, Wednesday.

John McDonald, the bright son of Col. and Mrs. W. A. McDonald is home from Bell Buckle, Tenn., for the holidays.

Mrs. J. A. Evans left Tuesday morning for Dresden, Tenn., to be absent for some time on a visit to the home of her parents.

Mr. Claude Turnbull of New York has recently purchased a home on Leonhard avenue and will reside here only through the winter months. He will begin extensive improvements on the property in a few days.

We note with sorrow the death in New Orleans of little Estelle Tudary, the three-year-old grandchild of Mr. Peter Tudary of the Hancock County Bank. The Echo tenders sympathy to the bereaved family.

On last Wednesday Mrs. W. J. Harrison gave a children's party and Christmas tree at her beach bungalow complimentary to the children of Dr. A. P. Smith, Mrs. Hugo Fernandez and the little daughter of Mrs. L. M. Power.

Many a promise is not the same as a cash dividend.

Business fiction: That all leading business men have good looking secretaries.

The pessimist says that the trouble with talking pictures is that they do talk.

Radio broadcasting is getting to be largely advertising, with a few treats thrown in.

If the long skirt comes into style it will take some people a long time to relearn the girls.

Men never get too old to propose matrimony and women never get too old to accept them.

One of the worst things that can happen is to be always on the lookout for the worse thing to happen.

Going to Church hasn't hurt anybody that we ever heard about. That's a pretty good recommendation.

Well, boy, it is hard to believe, but in a few years there will be another crop of them storming the gates around Wall Street.

The secret of writing these small paragraphs is to wait until the last minute and then you have to write them, whether or not.

When business booms people get friends will be pleased to learn that his condition is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waller have returned from Silver Creek, where they spent the holidays.

Mr. Walter Ladner of Lumberton was a recent visitor to his old home at Lakeshore and came to the Bay to tell his many friends of the arrival of Jack, Jr., on the 29th.

Miss Mildred Murtagh has returned to her home in New Orleans after a short stay with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Little.

Mrs. Regina Blaize, one of our oldest and best citizens, died Thursday, at 1:30 P. M., at the home of her son Victor (Manly) Blaize. She had been ill only a few days and her death was unexpected and came as a shock to the family and her many friends.

optimistic. The trouble is that most of us get too optimistic; and then business doesn't boom.

A lady, who reads this journal, told us last week that our editorials bubbled over, just like we never put a minute's thought on them!

Correct this sentence: "This is an important meeting of the lodge and it makes no difference whether you are present or not."

Our advice to those who broke all their 1929 resolutions is to make a new set for 1930, even if the suspicion is that they will be broken too.

It is almost, positively dangerous to travel about the highways in automobiles. There are so many wrecks these days that a man doesn't know which way to turn when he comes to a curve.

Resolve this month never to believe that you can raise vegetables like the pictures in the catalogs. Next Spring you won't need any resolution.

LES BOHEMIENNES DANCE.

The outstanding dance of the holiday season in Bay St. Louis was that given by Les Bohemiennes Saturday night of last week, and to which were bidden almost one hundred guests. This club is composed of a number of the young ladies of the Bay and the members were gowned for the evening in gypsy costumes. The Bay-Yacht Club which was the scene of this revelry was decorated in gypsy boudoirs. The Delta Band of New Orleans furnished the music for the evening. Among the guests were the Tulane students members of the basketball team which met the Panthers here in a game that night. The committee in charge of arrangements for the annual holiday dance included Miss Alice Louise Nathan, Miss Hermie Perkins and Mrs. Horace L. Kergosien.

The young men who were guests at this dance are extending invitations for a return courtesy dance which will be given at the Yacht Club Saturday night of this week. Les Bohemiennes membership was represented by the following named present:

Miss Irene Sollier, Miss Lou Bienvenue, Miss Lucille De Armas, Miss Alice Louise Nathan, Miss Effie Graham Power, Misses Beatrice and Elsie Mae Smith, Misses Margaret and Genevieve Green, Miss Helen Chapman, Miss Alice Lawson, Miss Corinne Gleason, Miss Belle Plunkett, Miss Martha Hall, Miss Marjorie Baret, Miss Hazel Kergosien, Misses Norma, Milton Phillips, Misses Mary, Ruth and Hermie Perkins, Miss Florence Russ, Miss Melo Nix, Miss Irma Koch, Mrs. R. T. Perkins, Mrs. Horace L. Kergosien, Mrs. Pat Elliott, Miss Shirley Pendou, Miss Ione Canty, Miss Gertrude Partridge, Miss Loretta Smith, Miss Yvonne Lacoste.

The following named gentlemen served on the reception committee for the evening, and officiated during the "call-out" dances: E. J. Lacoste, George R. Rea, James N. Geary, Edward Nathan, Winfield Partridge, Dr. Evans, Dr. Smith, C. G. Moreau. The guests list for Les Bohemiennes dance follows:

Laurent Kergosien, Walter Thiel, Benic Hill, Dick Daly, Cyril Clavere, Cyril Glover, Junior Glover, Simon Engman, D. G. Runyon, Junior Breath, Louis Clavere, Junior Blanchard, Donald Blanchard, Coney Weston, Horatio Weston, Waldo Otis, Bill Woods, Kendrick Nathan, Herman Cazanove, J. J. —MANY HOME PARTIES.
The holidays were replete with many home parties when families delighted to visit with their relatives and members of their own circle home for the vacation period. Happiness was extended to many in the smaller gatherings of the holidays when the Christmas spirit prevailed and when each new guest was the inspiration for yet another serving of the delectable Christmas cookery. A table of bridge, a supper with several guests, a dinner when additional plates were placed, an auto ride, an afternoon call, these and many more gatherings featured the Christmas, a time singularly free from large parties.

—BOYS TO GIVE DANCE.
The young men of the city who were guests of Les Bohemiennes Club at the holiday dance last week will entertain with a courtesy return dance at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club Saturday night of this week, with the music furnished by the same band that played for the girls dance.

—One of the lovely holiday parties was the reception from 6 to 9 New Year's night when Miss L. C. Del Bondio and Miss M. E. Bertrand were at home to their friends from all parts of the Coast, a number of Bay St. Louisians sharing in the hospitality.

—CARD OF THANKS
As collector for the funds with which to "wire" and place electric lights at the shrine of "Our Lady of the Woods" I wish to employ this method to thank every one who made cash contributions for this cause. I am appreciative of the manner in which friends responded to the cause and feel gratified to announce that a long wished for desire has been fulfilled in tribute to Our Lady of the Woods.

ATTEND MARKHAM ROOF.

A number of Bay St. Louis people enjoyed the New Year's Eve party at the Markham hotel roof, one of the prettiest parties of the season. Among those noted were: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Prague, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gex, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kergosien, Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Canty, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Moreau, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Misses Mary and Hermie Perkins, Margaret Green, Lucille de Armas, Lucille and Irene Weston, Stella Gex, Irene Sellier, Marcella Triffley and Bernadine Coignard, the latter two of New Orleans, guests here for the New Year's season; and Messrs. Waldo Otis, Grady Perkins, Sam Jordan, Coney Weston, Joabert Fuchic, Laurent Kergosien, Bennie Hill, Norman Renshaw, Walter and A. T. Leonard, the latter two of New Orleans and guests here for the New Year's.

AT THE ORIOLE.

The holiday season was gay at The Oriole on North Beach Boulevard. A large beautifully decorated Christmas tree filled one corner of the tea room. Among the guests during the holidays were: Alexander Hopkins, Aurora, Ill.; John Barry, Norman, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Nagb, New York; Ralph Taylor, Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitfield, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. George, Fairfield, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Rolvaag, Fritjof Rolvaag, Northfield, Minn.; Miss Evelyn Berdahl, Urbana, Ill.

Among the local people dining at The Oriole for the special Christmas dinner were Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pitcher, and Mr. and Mrs. Val Yates.

GAIETY CLUB DANCE.

The greater number of the younger dancing set of the Bay-Waveland area were guests of their Logtown neighbors Thursday night of last week at the annual holiday dance of The Gaiety Club, given at the Masonic hall. The large gathering was by invitation and a most delightful evening was enjoyed. The excellent music, the spirit of prevailing joy, all conducted a happy evening. The Gaiety Club is composed of a group of young ladies of Logtown. The young men who were guests at the dance returned the courtesy by giving a dance for the girls Monday night, which also proved happily delightful.

MANY HOME PARTIES.

The holidays were replete with many home parties when families delighted to visit with their relatives and members of their own circle home for the vacation period. Happiness was extended to many in the smaller gatherings of the holidays when the Christmas spirit prevailed and when each new guest was the inspiration for yet another serving of the delectable Christmas cookery. A table of bridge, a supper with several guests, a dinner when additional plates were placed, an auto ride, an afternoon call, these and many more gatherings featured the Christmas, a time singularly free from large parties.

BOYS TO GIVE DANCE.

The young men of the city who were guests of Les Bohemiennes Club at the holiday dance last week will entertain with a courtesy return dance at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club Saturday night of this week, with the music furnished by the same band that played for the girls dance.

—One of the lovely holiday parties was the reception from 6 to 9 New Year's night when Miss L. C. Del Bondio and Miss M. E. Bertrand were at home to their friends from all parts of the Coast, a number of Bay St. Louisians sharing in the hospitality.

COAST BUSINESS WOMEN
FAVOR BAY ST. LOUIS

best interest into the work of our club. We should carry out the programs of our State and National Chairmen, and by the way, I might say that National Headquarters are now urging that each and every club observe Thrift Week which opens on January 17th; and again, that we celebrate Business Women's Week, March 10th to 16th, in some outstanding accomplishment or event.

"We should bring into our club and into our communities the enthusiasm the inspiration, and the ideas offered by women of other communities and other sections. We should develop contacts with these other women and let them ripen into friendships, so that we may count our friends in federation numbers, and thereby develop ourselves by drawing to ourselves the ideas, views and benefits which experience has given others.

"Nothing succeeds like success, and when our Club has any project to put over, or at any time for that matter, we must always bear in mind that an organization cannot succeed without the co-operation of its members, and with all shoulders to the wheel, we can put over any project we undertake.

"I can tell you this because you are our "Sister Club" but we are not going to shout this from the house-tops. The Gulfport Club in its first meeting in December put on an emblem program, and it was that well planned and handled and so much enthusiasm aroused in the emblem that as a result we have already this month sold eight emblem pins to our members, and four to members of the Pass Christian Club. We have bought fifteen, so that leaves three unsold, and though I am not going to try to sell the other three emblem tonight, I want you to know that we have three for sale should any of you non-emblem members want one.

"Most of you know that the Gulfport Club has won the cup two years and if we win it this year, it will be ours for keeps. I know the Pass Christian Club is with us, and we want you to know that at any time we can cooperate with you, we will be more than pleased to do so.

"And now, I want to tell you about the State convention which is to be held in Gulfport on April 13, 14 and 15. We are to have as our honor guest Miss Emily Kneubuhl, the Executive Secretary of the National Federation a wonderfully brilliant woman, and I do so hope every Club member on the Coast, will not miss the opportunity of meeting and knowing Miss Kneubuhl. The advice I have is that she will arrive in Gulfport on Sunday, April 14th and while the definite program has not been outlined as yet, we will, of course, plan some entertainment for her on Sunday. Girls, we want to make that the very best Convention, Mississippi has ever had, it will be the Sixth State Convention, and I am going to ask each of you to try in every way to make it the success we would have it. I am addressing the two Clubs as one body, for after all, we are very close sisters, and if the Pass Christian club wants to have a particular part in the program, we, the Gulfport Club shall be delighted."

This is not, I know, a business meeting in any sense of the word, but I am going to presume just a bit by offering a resolution which I have made as simple as possible, leaving out all the wherefores and the therefores, putting it in very simple straightforward terms.

In conclusion the annual Christmas tree observance followed the banquet, members and guests holding a numbered ticket which corresponded to a like numbered present from the tree. In all the affair was outstanding and easily featured as one of the features of the holiday season in Bay St. Louis and along the Gulf Coast.

AGED CONFEDERATE
VETERAN PASSES AWAY

Jos. D. Saucier, native of Hancock county, died at Beauvoir Soldiers Home Saturday at the age of 76 years. His body was brought to the home of his son, Antoine Saucier of Nacosse avenue and the funeral was conducted from there to Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church Sunday afternoon, 3 o'clock, with Rev. Leo Fahney, officiating. Interment was at Cedar Rest cemetery. A number of friends and relatives were in attendance to extend the last honors to this highly respected citizen. Mr. Saucier had been in his earlier years a millwright and blacksmith. He is survived by three children, Antoine, Jos. Saucier of Bay St. Louis, Alvin James Saucier of Lafayette, La., and Mrs. Josie Bourgeois of New Orleans, 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means to thank our friends and neighbors who so generously came to our assistance in the moment of our adversity, when our home burnt. Especially do we thank Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, Mrs. Claude Monti, Mrs. J. Hose and Mrs. Engman. All have our everlasting thanks. May the One above reward them a hundred fold for their good deed.
